CHIEF URQUHART OF ARLINGTON

Shrewd and active police official who is relentlessly directing the hunt for the slayer of Annie Mullins.

TWO GIRLS IN HOSPITAL HELD AS PRISONERS

Pretty Lynn Maidens Defied
Laws and Visited Sweethearts Sick With Diphtheria.

Two girls, from sixteen to eighteen years of age, are prisoners in the United States Naval Hospital in Chelsea because they dared to go there and visit Susan John Fined and John J. Karl, their sweethearts. Worse than that, the girls dared to enter the contagious department of the hospital, fearing not a whit the fact that the young ladies were sick from diphtheria.

Refuse Their Names.
This strange situation is originated by the fact that the pretty prisoners refuse to give their names. Persons who saw them told the hospital authorities that they were about eighteen, were Miss Katherine Brown of Lynn, and one known when the other is, to, was said to come from Lynn. For a while the girls refused to give their names, but they disclosed both of the girls, saying that no young women were reported as missing from Lynn.

Warn Against Trespassing.
Today signs warning against trespassing on the hospital grounds have been posted all around the Federal property. This means that in future the people of Chelsea must keep away from the grounds and that the hospital authorities will be forced to hand the law to the trespassers.

Police on Trail of "Man With Cast in His Eye" Follow Him Through Newport to Gotham—Newburyport Man Released After Questioning.

Following closely on the trail of the stocky, built, nervous man with a cast in his eye, located by the BOSTON AMERICAN at Newport and traced to Fall River and Providence, and believed to be the slayer of Annie Mullins, the Arlington police this afternoon telegraphed to New York asking the authorities there to make search for him.

So closely did this suspect resemble the descriptions given by several persons who believe that they saw the murderer of Annie Mullins that the police decided the clue was one of the best they have yet received.

Chief Egan of the Providence force today ordered his men to keep a sharp lookout for the suspect, although they believe that he has succeeded in reaching New York, probably by the midnight train Monday night out of Boston.

YOUNG GERMANY RELEASED.
Charles Sehn, a young German, was taken to the Newport police station by Detective James Murphy today and questioned by Chief Egan because of a close resemblance to the man wanted in the case of the murder of Annie Mullins. Sehn was released after he had been questioned for some time and he was not taken into custody.

Chief Egan of the Providence force today ordered his men to keep a sharp lookout for the suspect, although they believe that he has succeeded in reaching New York, probably by the midnight train Monday night out of Boston.

MONEY LENDER HELD AS FORGER IN $3,000 BAIL

"Pay, Jump Overboard or Go to Jail." He Told His Client.

"Pay the money; jump overboard or go to jail," were the three methods of escape that Jacob Watchmaker, a money lender at No. 104 Hanover street, offered his client when he could not make good the payment of some notes that were due him.

Watchmaker was held in $3,000 bail for the Superior Court after a trial on the charge of forging endorsements on some notes held by Watchmaker. According to his story he went to the money lender to borrow some money. He could not get the money and he was held in $3,000 bail.

ASQUITH NOW SLATED FOR CABINET HEAD

American Mother's Son and American Girl's Husband to Be Honored.

LONDON, April 2.—A shake-up is afoot in the British Cabinet. Unless Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman dies in the meantime he will assuredly resign to make room for an American wife-in-law.

Asquith will succeed Sir Henry. But this will surely mean a change for the others. Asquith will have to quit the chancellorship to give himself more time to run the rest of the Cabinet. The Premier dashes to the rescue. The post calls for little work and pays $250,000 annually.

CALLS IT "NASTY LIE"

NEW YORK, April 2.—"I don't care!" That was the first word that came from the lips of Mrs. Evelyn Thaw when she was informed that she had been ejected from the Hotel Story. She was sitting in a room at the hotel, and was talking to a friend when she was told that she had been asked to leave. She was told that she had been asked to leave because she was "too noisy" and "too vulgar." She was told that she had been asked to leave because she was "too noisy" and "too vulgar."

Fat people, as well as others, should realize that,
as a general rule, there is a remedy for every disease of the human organism. Nature provides a cure for nearly every disease. It is a law of the universe. That is why the cure for nearly every uncomfortable disease—obesity. Nature provides a remedy, not from the dangerous drugs and bitter extracts from minerals, but from extracts of fruits and vegetables, other organic materials which are harmonious to the body.

Among such materials there is known a remedy for obesity which has not yet become universally known. The use of which has already resulted in enormous benefit, and most probably in the saving of many lives.

The remedy is commonly called Rango. The rate of use is just exactly what will reduce fat, and do so harmoniously and surely.

RED SOX TAKE THE HOOSIERS TO-DA

By A. H. C. MITCHELL.
INDIANAPOLIS, April 2.—The entire Red Sox squad arrived here this morning from Cincinnati and registered at the Grand Hotel. As Deacon McGuire broke the name of the players in the boys' crowd around to get their keys as soon as the teams were assigned.

"Well, fellows," said the manager, "take a good night's rest tonight for tomorrow we split up."

They have been a change in the schedule and the Yankees leave here tomorrow morning for Champlain, Ill. A wire was sent to the Boston office to send on Eddie Collins to the Chicago office to see the Yankees' managers and he is expected here tomorrow.

NEW ORLEANS TEAM MADE UP OF LEAGUE CAST-OFFS

NEW ORLEANS, La., April 2.—The New Orleans team, which expects to make a strong bid for the pennant in the Southern League this year, is made up almost entirely of league cast-offs.

George Rose, who will play shortstop for the Pelicans, is the former White Sox player and hero of the world's series. Rose was secured by Cousin from New Orleans. After Rose practically won the league for Chicago by his hitting, Cousin claimed that he would have a job with his team for life. Recently Cousin has forgotten all about the deal.

Joe Dugan, who is second in line for the job, is a former White Sox player and hero of the world's series. Dugan is holding out for a big salary.

GOTCH SHOWING HIS FAMOUS TOE HOLD

It is with this hold that the American champion hopes to defeat George Hackenschmidt on April 3.

FRANK GOTCH.

CHICAGO, April 2.—The Widesky City is wild over wrestling just at present, and the world's heavyweight champion, Frank Gotch, the American, and Hackenschmidt, the Russian, holder of the title, tomorrow night.

It is scheduled for the greatest battle on mat that has ever taken place, and Gotch says that, win or lose, he will retire from the game, but has every confidence that he will win.

Judging by the practice bouts of the two great wrestlers—Frank Gotch and George Hackenschmidt—their first battle will be a case of footwork and a wild game for the first hold. Hack has already declared that he will start for the center of the ring, try to get Gotch into his hold, and then, if possible, slip under him. With Gotch thus situated he will have no chance to work his toe grip and Hack has never failed to speedily settle any man whom he could catch in such a position.

He figures the moment time is called on diving for the mat and grabbing Gotch by the neck, and then he will try to get him into his hold. The game, therefore, is one of speed—whether Gotch can dive the most quickly than Hack can circle about him.

Hackenschmidt has worked desperately to learn how to get into his hold, and he thinks that even if he cannot get into his hold, he will be able to counterbalance the fight and will be able to counterbalance the fight and will be able to counterbalance the fight.

Gotch's partisans now maintain that his hold is a sure thing, and that his hold is a sure thing, and that his hold is a sure thing.

Until Reby joined the Louisville club he always played shortstop. But the manager of the Louisville club, who is now at the Knickerbocker, where he made such a hit, has been kept at the bag ever since.

"I was forced to play shortstop for professional ball playing," Ueda told me, "as the players call Claude, replied that he was not a professional ball player, playing is to be able to play ball. It is something that a boy has got to learn himself. You could teach him, but he has got to have good instincts to begin with."

"I was born at a farm at Kuniton and began to play in a field as early as I was four years old."

"I was playing on the Emulsion team when it played the Franklin club and the visitors were my friends."

"I used to go there to play with them. That put me into line for getting in the league."
